Dr. Yuval Evri is a faculty member at the Mandel School for Educational Leadership in the Hebrew University of Jerusalem. He is a sociologist and culture researcher who focuses on the intellectual and political history of the Land of Israel/Palestine at the turn of the 20th century. Among his interests are the unique dissenting perspective of Israel's Jewish population from Northern Africa and the Middle East.

Co-sponsored with the Center for Islamic and Arabic Studies